79 Robinson Road Singapore 068897

CapitaSky (formerly known as 79 Robinson Road) is an exclusive high-rise office building that promises flexibility for a new way of working. Prominently located at the junction of Robinson Road and Maxwell Road, the building forms part of the vibrant Tanjong Pagar district. With highly efficient floor plates, curated co-working spaces, and hospitality-styled office lobby lounge areas, tenants can optimise their space use in a luxurious environment. Amenities such as F&B outlets, a mid-level sky terrace, roof garden and lushly landscaped grounds offer a welcome retreat from the rigors of the workday.

CapitaSky adopts green practices such as using NEWater for its irrigation and cooling towers.

The building is also equipped with an automatic water efficient irrigation system with rain sensors which shut off the sprinkler when it rains, ensuring more efficient use of water resources. Its energy-efficient facade is also designed to minimise solar heat transmission, reducing the pressure on energy used for cooling.

- Within short walk to Tanjong Pagar MRT (East-West Line), with planned direct access via an underground pedestrian link in the near future
- Sheltered connectivity to Shenton Way MRT (Thomson-East Coast Line)
